

Copywriter
Simon Cyrene Group
Birmingham, Alabama
Part-Time/Full-Time Position

Simon Cyrene Group, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, is seeking a dynamic and insightful copywriter. This individual needs to possess a deep desire to help non-profits, churches, and other organizations effectively and passionately communicate their mission through creative and innovative writing. This position requires partnering with clients and internal teams to concept, write, and edit compelling copy for collateral, interactive, exhibits, direct mail, and advertising.

Simon Cyrene is a creative group committed to improving the quality of life for those with limited resources using strategic thinking, creativity, and strong design. Simon Cyrene Group was created as a result of the significant amount of pro-bono work done by its parent company Slaughter Group, a for-profit strategic branding and design firm.

Skills Needed:

- 3-5 years practical experience as a writer in the marketing and advertising industry
- ability to handle multiple projects simultaneously
- strong interpersonal skills to work effectively with clients and co-workers
- develop copy that is synergistic with art/graphic elements
- high level of analytical ability and problem-solving skills
- ability to work independently or with a team
